The film was a Blockbuster as it grossed over worldwide. It was the highest grossing Indian film for 2004. Synopsis Sukhi (Amitabh Bachchan) is a tough truck driver in the Indian trucking industry. The hard work seems to be wearing him down and he is on the verge of a nervous breakdown. He is constantly harassed by the mafia to deliver a truckload of drugs at a ridiculously low price. Because he refuses to deliver on time, or deliver at all, he is constantly threatened with his life. One day, he notices a businessman (Akshay Kumar) avoiding the mafia thugs that are looking for him. Sukhi decides to help the businessman, using his connections in the Indian trucking industry to get his truck moving, only to find out that it is in fact a drug shipment. Sukhi is horrified by what he finds out, and decides to get out of this deadly game, and seeks out the rightful owner.
